For your consideration:

Describe your moment. What are your current circumstances? What challenges do you face?

What are your responsibilities? Who do you minister to? Whose ear do you have?

What are your fears? Doubts? What attribute of God do you most need?

Describe your moment. What's the issue or challenge? Who all is involved?

How have you already responded? Upon reflection, was it the God-honoring response?

Why? Why not? Where do things currently stand?

Is there something you know you ought to do? How can you prepare?
